

NECOG helped Frederick make fuel available in town.

The Frederick Development Corporation is no stranger to taking risks to improve quality of life in their community. They'd previously opened a restaurant and sold it to a private operator. After the town's local gas station closed, Gary Peterson and Rich Bakeberg got to work to fill the need.

But, they didn't have the funds on hand.

NECOG partnered with them to fund the project and bring fuel back to the community.

"I would recommend NECOG to anybody; they are very good to work with."

Why NECOG was a good fit

The Frederick Development Corporation is a progressive thinking group with big ideas but a limited balance sheet. Their local lender provided construction financing and NECOG paired them up with their revolving loan program for the permanent financing.

When banks say no, NECOG gets to work. We're an alternative lender with a mission to support business growth and entrepreneurship in the counties we serve. We work with other lenders or go it alone to make business happen.
